Harden McCormack

HUSTONVILLE — Harden "Junky Joe" McCormack, 68, of Hustonville Route 2, died at 9:30 p.m. Monday at his residence after a long illness.

He had operated a salvage area and was a native of Rockcastle County.

Survivors include his wife, Jessie Owen McCormack; three sons, Charles Edward of Liberty, Tad of Cincinnati and Robert McCormack of Perryville; six daughters, Dorothy Douglas, Henrietta Johnson, Thelma Johnson, Louise Bryson, Patty Russ and Penny Moses, all of Cincinnati; 27 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren and two half-brothers, Bastum Payne of Georgia and R.L. Payne of Timothy.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at W.L. Pruitt Funeral Home, Moreland, with the Rev. Roger Weddle officiating. Burial will be in the family cemetery in Rockcastle County.

Visitation is at the funeral home after 1 p.m. Wednesday.

They are not lost who find the light of sun and stars and God.

Rest In Peace

BEYOND THE SUNSET

Should you go first and I remain,
to walk the road alone,
I'll live in memories garden, dear,
with happy days we've known.
In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue.
In early fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.
Should you go first and I remain, for battles to be fought,
Each thing you've touched along the way will be a hallowed spot.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho blindly I may grope,
The memory of your helping hand
will buoy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain,
one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long-long path, for soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
so I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road,
you'll hear me call your name.
